

LOBBY & PANTRY PORTFOLIO

Drive Sales. Help Fuel Guests All Day Long

Business travelers and guests on the go are gravitating toward grab & go snacking options. Drive sales and profits from your lobby, pantry and grab & go areas with the same top brands your customers choose when they're at home, from Hillshire® Snacking Plates to Jimmy Dean® Butcher Wrapped Sandwiches.

Better Breakfast On-the-Go

As the competition to differentiate heats up, understanding how guests' breakfast needs are evolving can help your operation stand out. As one example, more consumers are eating their morning meal in-transit than ever before. With breakfast habits shifting to fit consumers' busy schedules and include more snacking, a plate of bacon & eggs or stack of pancakes is no longer all customers look for. Guests now appreciate the ability to take breakfast with them wherever they may go and at any time they choose. Offering options in your lobby market/pantry that are convenient and portable is a way to keep guests satisfied and spending on premise even when they venture out. Here are additional details on the key trends at breakfast.

24/7 Food Access

Food and beverage in lodging operations has moved from being something that's nice to have during only some dayparts to an expectation every hour of every day. While some service areas still operate on traditional daypart hours, additional grab-and-go options are being added throughout many types of properties to capitalize on the consumer demand for different options throughout the day. Gone are the traditional dayparts and now you can meet guests where they are in terms of late-night food options, mid-afternoon snacks, happy hours, etc.

of lodging operators agree or completely agree that refrigerated snacks such as sandwiches, wraps, and fresh fruits are becoming more important to their guests.

66%

of business and leisure travelers said they would be more likely to purchase food at a hotel if it offered more convenient options.

Sandwiches continue to demonstrate their role as a staple within consumers needs.
